

Did You Know?

Electric cooperatives have retired $12.8 billion to members since 1988— $974 million in 2014 alone. Because electric co-ops operate at cost, any excess revenues, called margins, are allocated and retired to members in the form of capital credits.

COMPANY NEWS

When Good Transformers Go Bad

July 9, the stepdown transformer located outside of the Stockade substation shorted-out internally. This caused the unit to erupt inside its housing.

This was a commercial transformer that steps 14400V down to 7200V. There was a short outage, but the crews were able to get out to the location and replace the transformer immediately.

CHOOSE THE RIGHT BULB FOR THE RIGHT JOB

There are three primary types of lighting: ambient (general lighting), task lighting and accent lighting. As lighting technologies continue to advance, consumers should be open to trying new shapes and types of bulbs. The check marks below indicate appropriate locations for different types of bulbs on the market. Happy shopping!

RECIPES OF THE MONTH

INGREDIENTS

- 1 cup quick-cooking brown rice
- 2 tablespoons hoisin sauce
- 1 teaspoon Sriracha or Asian chili-garlic sauce
- canola oil, for the grill
- 1 1/2 pounds skirt steak, cut into 4 pieces
- 1 English cucumber, halved lengthwise and thinly sliced
- 2 scallions, thinly sliced, white and green parts separated
- 1 tablespoon rice wine vinegar
- 1/2 teaspoon sugar
- kosher salt and black pepper
- 1/4 cup salted, roasted peanuts, chopped

Spicy Hoisin Skirt Steak with Cucumber Salad

Heat grill to medium-high. Cook the rice according to the package directions.

Meanwhile, in a small bowl, stir together the hoisin and Sriracha; oil grill. Brush the steak with the hoisin mixture and grill, 2 to 3 minutes per side. Let rest for 5 minutes before slicing.

In a medium bowl, toss the cucumber and scallion whites with the vinegar, sugar, and 1/4 teaspoon each salt and pepper. Serve with the steak and rice and sprinkle with the peanuts and scallion greens.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 unsliced rectangular loaf of brioche or good-quality firm white bread, crusts discarded
- 4 cups blueberries (1 pound)
- 5 cups raspberries (18 ounces)
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 teaspoon fresh lemon juice

Equipment: a deep 2 1/2-quart bowl (preferably 8 inches in diameter across top and 3 inches across bottom); a platter with a lip

Summer Pudding with Blueberries and Raspberries

Cut bread into 14 (1/2-inch-thick) slices. Cut out a 3-inch round from 1 slice and put in bottom of bowl. Line side of bowl with 10 slices, overlapping them slightly.

Bring berries, sugar, and lemon juice to a boil in a heavy medium saucepan over medium heat, then simmer, stirring occasionally, until berries collapse and release their juices, about 8 minutes. Spoon fruit into a sieve set over a bowl and let drain 15 minutes. Spoon drained fruit into bread-lined bowl (reserve juices) and cover completely with remaining bread, cutting bread to fit.

Pour juices evenly over bread, making sure all bread is saturated. Cover pudding directly with a piece of wax paper and place a 7-inch plate, upside down, on top of paper. Put a 1- to 1 1/2-pound weight (such as a large can) on plate and chill at least 8 hours.

Remove weight, plate, and wax paper and invert platter over bowl, then invert bowl onto platter. Carefully unmold.
